THE Union gives an account of a man who had several of his ribs broken and says they were "dressed" by a surgeon. It must have been a difficult operation.
PORK PACKING.—Messrs. Kellerstrass & Vogele commenced cutting hogs at their pork house, yesterday. People who want nice spare ribs and tender loins can be supplied by calling at their warehouse on the levee.

HORSE TAKEN UP.—Taken up by John Brady, of Buffalo Prairie, November 4th, 1867, a Roan Mare, about four years old, brand "H" on left shoulder, some white on right hind foot, and star in forehead, which the owner can have by proving property and paying charges.

ACCIDENT.—Last Monday, Mr. Frank C. Kelling, a farmer, living about three miles south of Coal Valley, was in that village with his team. His horses took fright at an engine and ran off, throwing him out and breaking several of his ribs. Dr. Martin attended to his injuries.

CHOCOLATE LIGONS.—The very finest quality of Old Kentucky Bourbon and Old Crow Whisky, as well as choice brandy, gin, wines, &c., &c., can be had at Peter Fries' liquor store, on the levee, front of the ferry landing. He keeps a large stock, and excellent articles. Go to Fries if you want a tip top article.

SAUSAGE FACTORY.—Phil R. Hein, (the painter) has again opened his sausage factory, on Eagle street, between the Argus office and the levee, where he keeps the very best kind of sausages, head cheese &c., &c., for sale. Phil had a good list of customers, last winter, who were well pleased with his work, and he hopes to see all the old ones and many new ones the coming season.

MURDER SUIT.—Last evening quite a little incident occurred on Illinois Street opposite Mitchell & Lynde's block, which created some sport. A muskrat by some means got away from home and got lost, and in hunting its home was set upon by parties in the street and killed. One of our restaurant keepers hearing of it got the carcass and had it served up into soup to-day to the great delight of all lovers of good eating.

RIVER ITEMS.—The steamers Mascutine and Dubuque arrived here at about dusk, last evening, and left this morning for St. Louis. The Pembina will probably arrive here this evening, and will be the last through boat to pass down this season. The Canada has been laid up in Sabula slough. The Iowa City went up this morning. The Savanna will be the regular packet for Fort Madison, to-morrow morning. River business continues fair.

We desire to keep it before our readers that, Dr. T. J. Holland, ("Timothy Titcomb") probably the most popular living American author, will lecture at Dart's Hall next Tuesday evening, for the benefit of the Library Association.

That "Timothy Titcomb" is a good lecturer, is shown by the fact that he has one hundred engagements this season, east and west, and those who miss hearing him next Tuesday will regret it.

MR. BRAY'S BENEFIT.—We presume our readers are calculating on a fine entertainment at Dart's Hall this evening, and that there will be a good house—we hope so, at least. The programmes are distributed and all can see that the entertainment is worthy of patronage, if well performed. And of this there can be no doubt. Mr. Bray has passed the ordeal of the Pacific coast, as a capital Claude Melnotte, and Mrs. Waugh makes an excellent Pauline. The bill is one which ought to draw a full house, and the gentleman for whose benefit the entertainment is gotten up is deserving of a large and intelligent audience.

STATE CONSTITUTIONS FOR SALE.—A good sound old democrat in Massachusetts, sending money for another year's subscription to the Argus, says:

FRIEND DANFORTH.—I receive the WEEKLY Argus quite regularly, and it does me good to read it. The democrat in the old Bay State felt in much better spirits since the fall elections than they have for years before. We have gained a few votes in this radical state, and I think entirely changed the complexion of the Legislature, and I hope some of the obnoxious laws will be repealed and better laws made in their place. The prospect is we shall have 140 State Constables for sale soon. Can't we find a customer in Illinois?

Yes—the radical party in Moline will want every one of them, and then they can't stop the sale of beer, ale, cider, native wine, &c.

LIBERAL PROPRIETOR.—The proprietors of the Rock Island and Moline Union are offering to give away their valuable paper for a part of the year to all who will pay for it a while longer. Not wishing to be outdone in enterprise by those liberal gentlemen, we have determined to offer the following splendid premiums:

New subscribers for one copy of the Argus will be presented with a box of Patent Petroleum Paste Blacking. This is a very superior article; it blacks boots, or stoves, and may be used as a hair dye. (For testimonials from leading clergymen, statesmen, and book-blacks, see advertising columns of the Argus.)

Subscribers for two copies will receive a box of sardines, and a bar of Warrick & Ralston's best bar soap.

Subscribers for five copies will be presented with a pair of iron-clad spectacles, with glass eyes, warranted to suit one age as well as another.

Subscribers for ten copies will be entitled to a patent adjustable foot-jack which can also be used as a cork-screw, a coffee mill, or inkstand.

Subscribers for twenty-five copies will receive a marble bureau with a mahogany top, containing one keg of Huber's best lager beer.

beer.
Subscribers for fifty copies will receive a seven-octave sewing machine with a female attachment.
Subscribers for seventy-five copies will receive a hasswood parlor suit of furniture.
Subscribers for one hundred copies will receive a burial lot with an order for tombstones delivered when required.
Subscribers for five hundred copies will receive a nomination for congress, and the superb steamer W. H. Thompson, including Capt. Deere and his jolly crew, and not excepting his portly chambermaid.
Subscribers for a thousand copies will be presented with a deed of a farm in the rear of Davenport, finely fenced, and like that city, elegantly mortgaged.
"We hope every friend of the Argus will take pains to make this proposition known" to his neighbors, and go in on his nerve like a thousand of brick.

With the exception of the London Times, we are now giving the largest amount of reading matter on the western continent, outside of Russian America, and as professional enterprisers have no superiors in this section of the state.

Invitation to Walter Bray to Accept a Complimentary Benefit.

His Letter of Acceptance.

Friday Evening Nov. 22, the Night Fixed Upon.

The following correspondence between several citizens of this place, and Mr. Walter Bray, the comedian, who is now filling an engagement in Davenport, has been furnished for publication:

INVITATION.
ROCK ISLAND, NOV. 19, 1867.
TO MR. WALTER BRAY, COMEDIAN, &c., &c.
Dear Sir:—The undersigned, having a high admiration for your talents as an actor, and your many good qualities as a gentleman, respectfully ask you to name some night on which it would be agreeable to you to receive a complimentary benefit at Dart's Hall, in this city, leaving to you the selection of such a programme as you think will be of general public interest.

A. C. DART, J. B. Danforth, Jr., E. C. Cropper, Wm. C. Blackburn, Ross Dyer, John G. Devoe, Geo. W. Copp, Wm. E. Chamberlain, J. N. Havens, C. W. Burgess, J. H. Beckwith, D. E. Lockwood, W. H. Dyer, S. Woodin, E. Carter, Geo. W. Dyer, Chas. W. Andrews, Frank H. Hayes, W. H. Baker, C. W. Burgess, J. P. Stafford, Phil Hein, John C. Lawson, of Davenport, Iowa, and many others.

MR. BRAY'S REPLY.
DAVENPORT, November, 20th, 1867.
TO Messrs. Dart, J. B. Danforth, Jr., E. C. Cropper, George W. Copp, T. H. Babcock, H. E. West, May Brothers, S. Woodin, John C. Lawson, L. M. Havens, J. G. Devoe, Wm. C. Blackburn, and others.
GENTLEMEN:—In response to your generous offering me a complimentary benefit, I cheerfully accept the honor you confer upon me. Although professionally undervaluing the decided mark of your esteem, still it gives me an incentive, a pride, to struggle to a position which you, my friends, may feel an interest in, and make me more worthy the testimonial you proffer. If my general department has your approval, rest assured I shall always endeavor to merit your good opinions as an actor.
I would name Friday evening next as the time, and Dart's Hall as the place, if consistent with your convenience.
I remain, gentlemen,
Yours most respectfully,
WALTER BRAY.
